SIA's Fourth Annual Army Commercial SATCOM User's Workshop
Monday, August 22, 2011 at LandWarNet 2011

Early-registration is still available for SIA's Fourth Annual Army Commercial SATCOM Users' Workshop. The Satellite Industry Association (SIA) and the U.S. Army PM WIN-T have the honor of announcing two leading U.S. Army SATCOM experts as guest speakers:

- Major General James Thomas Walton (USAR), Director, Chief Integration Office, Office of the Chief Information Officer/G-6 will give opening remarks; and,
- Brigadier General N. Lee S. Price, Program Executive Officer for Command, Control, Communications (Tactical) (C3T) will be the luncheon keynote speaker.

In addition, government and industry experts will join in interactive sessions on the following topics:

- "Mobility Demands: An Operational View of Technology vs. Requirements"
- "SATCOM Support for Situational Awareness: Standards and Requirements"
- "Field Perspectives: SATCOM Technology and Policy Support for effective SATCOM Deployment in the Field"
- "Lessons Learned for the Way Ahead"
